Pisces individuals often can be relied upon to "clean up" to finish a job, to clear the way for real progress. The native does not always receive proper credit — but much of this will change, beginning with October of 1975. In 1976, next year, it could be Pisces power all the way!

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Spotlight is on personal possessions, money, special payments and collections. Aquarius, Leo and Scorpio could be in picture. Key now is to be specific, to have facts at hand, to deal with hard realities. Insist on your rights and others will pay what is due.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Lunar cycle high; make changes, contacts — take initiative. Highlight personality, personal appearances. Member of opposite sex comments on your charisma. Your ego could go sky-high — maintain balance, humor. You will be at right place at right time.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): You gain additional insights. Family, special institutions are likely to be involved. What occurs behind the scenes may directly affect your progress. Check costs. Be positive you are getting money's worth.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Accent is on romantic pursuits, gains, fulfillment. You may not be seeing too clearly. Know it and give yourself a chance to perceive situation as it actually exists. Pisces, Cancer and Virgo individuals figure prominently.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Emphasize responsibility — become goal-oriented. What you want is available. Go to source. Accept challenge. One in authority feels you can give more and receive more — and room is being made for you higher up ladder. Know it and pounce on opportunity.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Completion of project, rounding out of concept, submission of format — these areas are highlighted. Aries, Libra persons may be in picture. Find better ways to advertise, distribute. Protect interests by clearing lines of communication. You'll understand!

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Light is thrown on previously obscured area. You come to terms with one who has been "in charge" of money. Partner, mate have plenty to say about policy, investments, expenditures. A new lease is indicated.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Accent on contracts, partnerships — marriage. Be sure you get points across in accurate manner. Check quotes. Improve public relations. Play cards close to chest. Let others reveal their hands. Do more listening than asserting. Time is on your side.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Highlight the practical. Leave fancy frills to others. Be concerned about health, diet — and employment. One who performs special services deserves special consideration. Know it and respond accordingly. Another Sagittarius — and a Gemini — could be in picture.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Good lunar aspect coincides now with creativity, emotional involvement and exciting prospects. You obtain a more solid position. Your own style is imprinted. Young persons respond. You get proverbial "second chance."

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Study Capricorn message for valid hint. Strive to build on solid base. Discard the flimsy — get the original. Family member, who seemed indifferent, now shows interest, curiosity. Gemini, Virgo figure in picture. Home area, domestic conditions tend to command attention.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Short trip, special message dominate. Information sources should be reviewed. Wires tend to cross — figuratively and in literal sense. Take special care around electricity. Home environment requires review. Are you creating unnecessary safety hazards?

IF TODAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you move more, travel more, think more, get involved in more social activities this year — and May will be your most important month of 1975. You are stubborn, independent, creative, unorthodox and may have been separated from one or both parents at a relatively early age. Aquarius, Leo and Scorpio persons play significant roles in your life.

Dr. Kallaus will speak at local Bosses Night

"Better Secretaries Mean Better Business" is the theme of the 24th annual Secretaries Week to be observed April 20-26, sponsored by the National Secretaries Association (International).

Locally, Mrs. Angela Charter, president of the Paddle Wheel Chapter, NSA, has announced the chapter will hold its 11th annual Bosses Night April 22. Dr. Norman K. Kallaus, chairman of the Department of Business Education at The University of Iowa, will be the featured speaker.

Dr. Kallaus has been a visiting professor at Portland State University and Catholic University and an associate professor at Arizona State University as well as the University of Iowa. He has been a communication consultant to banking, insurance, and accounting firms; an educational consultant to the Data Processing Management Association and to American Telephone and Telegraph Company; and curriculum consultant for school systems.

In addition to his engagements as director of workshops on machines, automation, and business communications, he has spoken to administrative, management, and education groups. He has been employed as a private secretary (including time at the Nuremberg War Trials) and as an office manager, and as a shorthand and typewriting demonstrator.

Dr. Kallaus has authored several books and numerous articles on business-related topics. He is a member and

Future secretaries plan trip

The Future Secretaries Assn. (FSA) is planning a trip to Chicago May 10.

Active FSA members will be sponsored through the association treasury while anyone else interested should contact Mrs. Margaret Wessels or Mrs. Mary J. Dreibeis at Muscatine High School.

The Paddle Wheel Chapter of the National Secretaries Assn. (NSA) is sponsoring a breakfast at 7 a.m. Tuesday, April 22, at the Canterbury Inn for members of their association and members of FSA. At that time the winner of the FSA scholarship will be announced, with the winner to be a guest of NSA at Bosses Night that evening.

Selected senior FSA members will spend the morning of Thursday, April 24, with a secretary on her job in observance of National Secretaries Week, April 21-25.

Maranatha Circle elects

New officers were named when 12 members of the Maranatha Circle of the First Baptist Church met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert Koll. They are: Joy Newell, president; Ruth Bollinger, vice president; Betty Koll, secretary; Dollie Hufford, treasurer; Jennie Raushenberger, white cross chairman; and Wilma Schoemaker, missionary chairman.

Helen Parsons gave the opening prayer. The group voted to give $4 toward the fruit baskets delivered to shut-ins. They also gave $25 to the church bus fund, and $5 to the special missionaries, Joanna and William Hodges of Haiti. Arlene Mullin presented the devotions, playing a record by the Moody Bible Institute choir. She then gave the program, "When You're Trapped," with references from Proverbs.

DR. NORMAN KALLAUS

education chairman of the American Business Communication Association; member of Administrative Management Society and American Records Management Association; and member of local, state, and national education societies. He received his doctor of philosophy degree from The University of Iowa in 1956.

U.S. Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer proclaimed the first Secretaries Week in 1952. Beginning in 1953 The National Secretaries Association co-sponsored Secretaries Week, and it was changed to the last full week in April. It has now become a permanent date for the observance of Secretaries Week. NSA now sponsors Secretaries Week with the cooperation of industry, the professions, and government.

The purpose of Secretaries Week is to recognize the secretary upon whose skills, loyalty, and efficiency the functions of business and government offices depend. The objective is to call attention through publicity to the tremendous potential of the secretarial career. NSA's definition of a secretary is "A secretary shall be defined as an executive assistant who possesses a mastery of office skills, who demonstrates the ability to assume responsibility without direct supervision, who exercises initiative and judgment, and who makes decisions within the scope of assigned authority."

Mrs. Joan Walling, chairman of the Secretaries Week Committee, welcomes all bosses and secretaries, and their spouses, to attend Bosses Night April 22 at the Elks Lodge. Call Mrs. Debbie Blake at 263-1321, Ext. 269, or Mrs. Walling at 264-6572 by April 16 to make reservations.

Evangelistic crusade at Walnut St. Baptist

The Rev. Ted Cary, pastor of the Walnut St. Baptist Church has announced an evangelistic crusade will be held April 13-20 at the church. Dr. Fred M. Barlow, Sunday school consultant for the Regular Baptist Press of Des Plaines, Ill., will be the evangelist. Services will be held at 9:30 and 10:40 a.m. and 7 p.m. on Sundays; and at 7:30 p.m. week nights.

Dr. Barlow preaches the old-time gospel with the characteristics of a Southern evangelist. Several of his messages have been published in national periodicals and three of them have won high honors in the National Evangelistic Sermon Contest.

His pastoral experience in churches in New York, Ohio and Michigan provides an excellent background for his evangelistic endeavors which have taken him to over 40 states, Washington, D.C.,

Dear Abby

Fiance conveniently forgets the license

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I wish people who ask ministers to conduct funerals and weddings knew what the word "honorarium" means (a payment to a professional for services for which no fee is set or legally obtainable.)

Some people feel it is so crude to ask a minister: "How much do I owe you," that they just let the matter go and do nothing about it at all.

My husband is a minister (please don't say where), and within the last year, he was called to officiate at the funeral services of both an elderly man and his wife, who lived 35 miles away. He was given no fee.

Abby, can you imagine anyone writing the following note to an attorney? "Thank you, Mr. Jones, for your legal services. Mother and Dad would have wanted you to come down to handle these legal services for us at this trying time."

Or the minister to his barber: "Thank you, Mr. Smith, for cutting my hair at this time. I would not want to embarrass the family by needing a haircut." Or: "Thank you, Mr. Brown, for the gasoline, oil and car wash. I wouldn't want to run out of gas on my way to a funeral or show up with a dirty car." Or: "Thank you, Mr. White, for cleaning and pressing my suit. I would not want to embarrass the family at this time by appearing unkempt."

In order to make ends meet, my husband moonlights and had to pay a substitute for his second job so he could make these two funerals.

INDIGNANT
DEAR INDIGNANT: Perhaps because there is no set fee for conducting funerals and weddings, some folks feel that there is no fee at all. Also, some clergymen have written to tell me that they consider such services a part of their job, and they're insulted when they are offered money for doing the work of the Lord.

I say: "Offer anyway. The offended clergyman can always refuse."

DEAR ABBY: I am 18, and the boy I've been dating for two years is 19. We were supposed to get married secretly last month, but Dick showed up without the license.

Originally, when I had asked him if he had it, he had said yes.

But after we arrived at the preacher's house and the preacher asked Dick for the license, Dick said he "forgot" it at home, hoping the preacher would perform the ceremony anyway, and let him bring it around later.

Well, the preacher wouldn't marry us without the license, so we decided to stay in a motel that night, thinking Dick would get the license the next day, and we'd get married and nobody would know the careless mistake he made.

Well, the preacher called my father, and my father came to the motel to pick me up. I felt just awful, but I went with my father.

I still have feelings for Dick. He says if I don't come back to him he will kill himself. My parents say I should let Dick go. Should I listen to my parents or stick with Dick?

CONFUSED
DEAR CONFUSED: Listen to your parents, dear. Dick didn't make a "careless" mistake, he lied to you. He sounds much too immature and irresponsible for marriage now.

CONFIDENTIAL TO LU: Don't believe everything you see in print. Many celebrities prefer to let vicious untruths go unchallenged rather than to sue for defamation of character because they believe that if one wrestles with a skunk, he's apt to emerge smelling as bad as the skunk.

DEAR ABBY: I am truly desperate. Never in my wildest dreams did I ever think that when I became a mother it would be the loneliest time of my life. I am so depressed that I can't even communicate with my husband anymore, and he is tired of hearing it.

Abby, if I had even an inkling that motherhood was such a onesided affair, I swear I would not have had a baby.

I love my three-month-old baby very much, and I love my husband, too, but when does it all come together? It seems all I do is make formula and wash diapers now, and my husband and myself caring about each other comes last on the list.

Why did everything change so drastically? What I expected to be the happiest time of our lives has turned out to be a nightmare.

I have lost all my freedom, my husband (emotionally, so far) and my own identity. In spite of being a wife and mother now, I am still ME! I can't wait to go back to my job at the office.

I feel so guilty about the way I feel, but I can't help it. Please help me, Abby. I love my husband, but I have never been more miserable, and I don't want to lose what once was a good marriage.

LOST MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: Please tell your doctor what you have told me. You are apparently suffering from "postpartum depression." It's not uncommon, and your doctor will help you get over it. Don't despair. Many new mothers have experienced the feelings you describe, but it need not last long.
